

FAQ's – Student Ambassador Program

What is the Student Ambassador Program about?

The Student Ambassador Program is a leadership opportunity for students who have participated in the KWHS Global Young Leaders Academy. The Student Ambassadors will get a chance to represent, support, and promote the Wharton Summer Program as well as our other programs, in their schools. As an ambassador, you will raise awareness of our programs, be a point-of-contact, and spread the word for our programs.

Who can apply?

To apply, you should have attended the KWHS Global Young Leaders Academy. You must be in between Class 9 and 12, and have at least one semester of school remaining, after you graduate from the summer program.

How do I apply? What happens after I apply?

You can apply here. After you submit your application, our team will get back to you in 5-7 days.

Can international students apply?

Yes, the program is open to international students if they have attended the Wharton Summer Program and are currently in school. They must also have at least one semester of school remaining, after you graduate from the summer program.

How long is the Student Ambassador Program? What is the time commitment?

Applications are offered on a rolling basis. The program will be for a minimum of 6 months and a maximum of 9 months. Students can re-apply after their term is over. It a very flexible program with minimal time commitment.

What are the responsibilities of a student ambassador?

As a student ambassador, you're expected to do the following:

- Be a representative for BrainGain Magazine summer programs
- Help us to connect with your school and its activities
- Participate in our information seminars on summer programs in your school and share your KWHS experience
- Be a Buddy to students who have confirmed their participation and counsel them through their queries
- Engage with others and help promote the program through social media channels.

That's about it. As simple as that!

Are there any incentives for being a student ambassador?

Yes, this is your opportunity to develop leadership, public speaking and team management skills, and get rewarded for it. We will be giving out freebies and goodies as well.
